

CLUBS FOR YOUNG PEOPLE (SCOTLAND)

“Creating opportunities for young people”

AIMS OF THE ORGANISATION

Clubs for Young People (Scotland) is established for the public benefit through aspiration to the following aims:-

Overall Aim:

To develop and foster Partnerships between Federations, Affiliated Clubs and External Organisations to provide a safe environment in which to promote the general welfare of young people in Scotland.

Underpinning Aims:

To maintain a centre of reference, for Clubs for Young People (Scotland), and to encourage and promote the benefits of using the service.

To assist, when requested, in the formation of new clubs and in the establishment of Federations in governance, where appropriate.

Promote events and activities on offer through the local Federations and assist members to partake in such events and or alternative activities.

To promote the co-operation between Federations and Clubs through competitions, training events and other means available.

To stimulate interest in the work of Clubs for Young People (Scotland) and recruit and train volunteers.

To co-operate at National level with other bodies, statutory and voluntary, interested in the welfare of young people and to act as a link between Clubs for Young People (Scotland) and Government Departments, Public Bodies and Trusts.

To make and carry out any arrangements of mutual benefit for joint working or co-operation with any other society or body having as one of its aims the welfare of young people.

To raise and administer funds for the furtherance of the Aims of the Association and take any action which may be to the benefit of the welfare of young people.